This is a discussion item.

Background

In the past the Wheels Accessible Advisory Committee (WAAC) has discussed renaming of the committee at their meetings in 2006 and 2010, and at both times the committee members chose to retain the current name.

In light of the recent rollout of LAVTA’s new logo that states “Tri-Valley Wheels” WAAC members recommended this item to be revisited to see whether there was any interest amongst the committee members in changing the name.

The new logo:

Prior to the creation of the WAAC, LAVTA's Accessibility Committee was known as the Paratransit Technical Advisory Committee (PTAC)

The neighboring agencies' Committee names are:

- East Bay Paratransit's Rider Advisory Committee, the SRAC (Service Review Advisory Committee)
- Central Contra Costa Transit Authority (CCCTA) – Accessible Services Committee
- AC Transit – Accessibility Advisory Committee
- SF Muni – Muni Accessibility Advisory Committee
- BART – BART Accessibility Task Force
